Members $28 in advance, $35 at the door.

Non-members $35 in advance, $45 at the door.

A distinguished panel of Chief Technology Officers will be looking at major technology trends having a big impact on CTOs over the past 3-5 years -- things which are changing our view of the world. The emphasis is on major trends such as DevOps/Containers/CI/CD, agile development, opening up legacy systems, Internet of Things (IoT), Mobile, and Social media.

Each CTO will present major developments/ trends -- what they are finding different now than 3 years ago -- and how they've risen to the challenge in addressing these trends. They will be sharing a vision of the future that is unfolding among us right now!

Presenter:

Tony Karrer - Moderator
