Simple economics.

Shortage.

- 9 million Java developers
- 18.5 million software developers
- Less than 100,000 capable blockchain developers

Still very early.

BUIDL, not HODL

When we are dead, it's not what we HODL or SODL that matters. It's what we BUIDL

Themes.

Immutability.

- Code that is deployed on the blockchain is there FOREVER
- No surprises vs no (direct) patching

Security.

- Move slow, don't break anything
- Risk mitigation

Transparency.

- Honest accountability
- Transactions, code, addresses

Token Economics.

- Incentives to guide human behavior
- Value exchange

User Experience.

- Command line? No thanks
- Private key management
- Better design

Scalability.

- Significant bottleneck
- Plasma, Raiden, sharding, state channels

What can we do?

DApperNetwork.

Global community of early blockchain tech adopters building decentralized apps (DApps)

Establish global network of resources that will accelerate the mainstream adoption of DApps

Education.

Equip DAppers with knowledge and skills to go from idea to real code
